

Business Valuation

1011 North Olive Ave
West Palm Beach, Florida 33401
United States

West Palm Beach Divorce Business Valuation Lawyers High-asset divorce lawyer Robert M.W. Shalhoub has 35 years of experience with skillfully negotiating and aggressively litigating favorable outcomes for his South Florida family law clients. At the Law Offices of Robert M.W. Shalhoub, P.A., in West Palm Beach, the goal is always to provide a long-term solution to a domestic legal problem, such as determining how a closely held family business should be divided at the end of a marriage. Business valuation and equitable distribution of business interests are only two of the issues that can confront couples and families at the end of a relationship. Robert M.W. Shalhoub brings proven expertise, broad legal knowledge, a track record of success and attentive personal service when financial matters such as property division, child support and spousal support, and post-judgment modifications of support obligations become factors that threaten an orderly transition to a post-divorce life. Robert M.W. Shalhoub is ranked in the top tier of lawyers in his field by Martindale-Hubbell and Super Lawyers. He is listed in the top 5 percent of Law and Leading Attorneys in Florida and since 1992 has been named annually in Who's Who in American Law. Palm Beach County Business Asset Division Attorney Robert M.W. Shalhoub For answers to questions about business valuation and to speak with a West Palm Beach divorce business valuation attorney who truly cares about your future, contact Mr. Shalhoub by phone or email to arrange an initial consultation.

Email Friend